

CMSG ends our strike
on Seaspan Tugs in British Columbia
Tentative Agreement reached – 14 Oct, 2022

This is an official announcement that the Canadian Merchant Service Guild has reached a tentative memorandum of agreement covering our members employed as Officers on all Seaspan tugs. The Guild will immediately withdraw our picket lines while the tentative agreement is being voted by the Members employed at Seaspan. Thank-you to those who provided support during this difficult job action.